

FREE COMMUNITY EVENT • THURSDAY, SEPT. 22 • 7 P.M.

“We must get over the divide because God has made us One.”

—Dr. J. Herbert Nelson II, General Assembly Stated Clerk, Presbyterian Church (USA)

Hear four Sacramentans talk about their experiences BEING BLACK IN AMERICA: A FREE EVENING OF STORYTELLING ON SEPTEMBER 22.  SPEAKERS INCLUDE

Jim Carter (retired, Sacramento Public Library), Barbara Green (retired, Sacramento City Unified School District), Ginger Rutland (Capital Public Radio journalist & former TV reporter/Sacramento Bee editor) and Rev. Asbury P. Jones (PR Manager for the Nutrition Education & Obesity Prevention Branch of the CA Dept. of Public Health & former Executive Dir. of the Spencer W. Perkins Fellowship program).  Donations to benefit the South Sacramento Interfaith Food Closet will be accepted at the door.  This is another in a series of free community events presented by “The Gathering,” a creative community in Sacramento that encourages the sharing of personal stories to strengthen relationships and provide a setting for fellowship, spiritual connection, and healing to occur.  Join us September 22 for another free evening of sharing true stories.

Thursday
September 22, 2016
7-8:30 p.m.

FREE!

DONATIONS FOR THE SSIP FOOD CLOSET
GRATEFULLY ACCEPTED
AT THE DOOR.
COME AT 6:30 FOR FREE REFRESHMENTS!

The Hall at Bethany
5625 24th Street
Sacramento 95822
(1.5 miles south of Sac City College)

www.sacgathering.org  TheGatheringSacramento